ANA IGLESIAS

SPAIN — A TikToker mother of 7.
She has more than 1M followers on social media and her family stories are the funniest!

#1 THE FAMILY CRAZINESS

Warning! You are about to enter the world of this family's craziness.

Ana is the mother of a large family and she has plenty to laugh about. After all, how could you not laugh when you have seven kids—six boys and a girl—younger than ten? Sometimes it seems like abject chaos, but whatever, it's no big deal. Ana knows how to keep her feet planted firmly on the ground and only take one step at a time. It's true that her routines are absolute madness: getting the kids ready for school, visiting grandparents or, honestly, just setting the table and getting everyone to sit down for a meal. But every moment can be a celebration; you just have to know how to handle it.

- Shared-reading comic for boys and girls ages four and up.

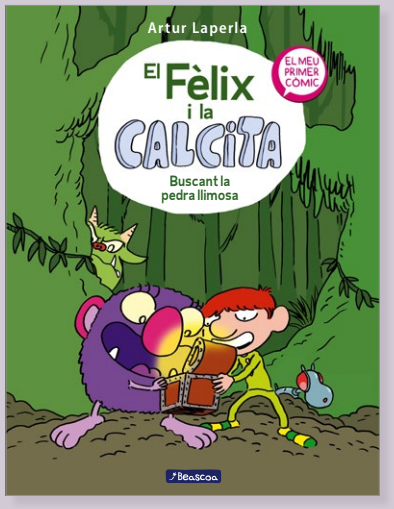
ARTUR LAPERLA

SPAIN — Illustrator, scriptwriter and cartoonist. He illustrated the graphic novel Dream Team, with script by Mario Torrecillas and adapted for the cinema by Julien Rappeneau.



FELIX AND CALCITA #3. IN SEARCH OF THE MUDDY STONE

The children's comic series from Artur Laperla, the creator of Super Potato.

Félix and Calcita's amusing adventures continue. After helping resolve the misunderstanding that pitted the gnomes and trolls against each other and rescuing Robocan in the land of the giants, Félix and Calcita will travel to the land of the ogres on an important mission: to find the muddy stone and save the Master Troll.

Action, adventure, fantastic charaters, and lots of bad jokes. All this in the third volume of Félix and Calcita.

THE BRUGUERA SCHOOL

BRUGUERA

During the 20th century Bruguera was home to the great Spanish school of comics or "tebeos", with cartoonists such as Vázquez, Ibáñez, Víctor Mora and Jan. Characterized by a humorous component and by scathing satire, well-worked scripts and easy-to-read drawings, the characters of Bruguera chart the transformation of Spanish society during the 20th century; they also offered a means of escape to a society chided by the Franco dictatorship.

However, in addition to forming part of the Spanish imagination and representing the "Spanish hallmark" of strip cartoons, the Bruguera characters also have a contemporary dimension that makes them relevant characters today: Mortadelo y Filemón, Rompetechos, Anacleto, Carpanta and Superlópez are just some of the many that are regarded as modern classics today.

Penguin Random House is marking the relaunch of the legendary publisher BRUGUERA with the publication of some of the most emblematic comic books or tebeos by Francisco Ibáñez, Víctor Mora, Vázquez, Raf and Jan.

"Bruguera was part of the sentimental education of several generations and it contributed to shaping the social and cultural identity of an entire country. We now have an opportunity to make all this content available to readers once more".

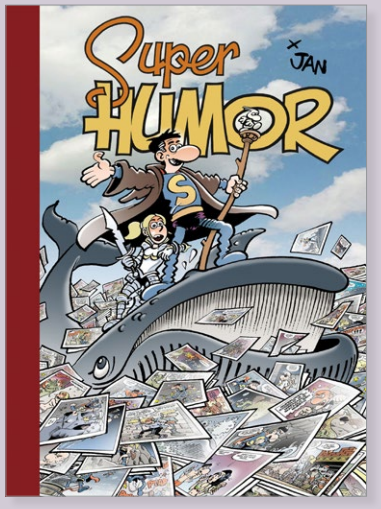
JAN

SPAIN — Pseudonym of Juan López Fernández (1939), he is a Spanish comic book writer and artist, most famous for his creation of Superlópez.

In May 2002, he received the Grand Prize of the Barcelona International Comics Convention that acknowledged his many contributions.



SUPERLÓPEZ

Superlópez is a Spanish comic book character created by Jan in 1973.

A very special album because our hero Superlópez is retiring, so this last Super Humour of the series contains additional material. First, a prologue by Antoni Guiral, author of The Big Book of Superlópez (PRH, 2018), and then the final two adventures of the character: Whale Games, in which Superlópez will enter the world of role-playing games, and Nerdy Dreams, an adventure in which our hero will help a young girl overcome bullying. The last part of the album includes never before published material in the Super Humour collection, which is very difficult to find nowadays.

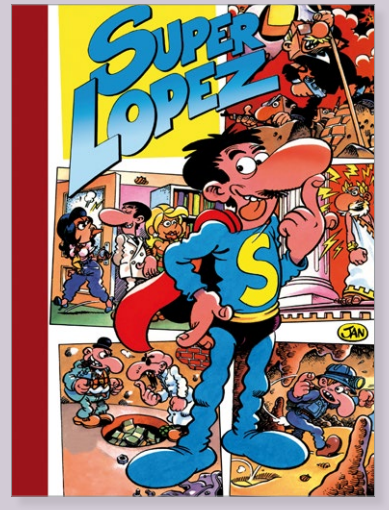
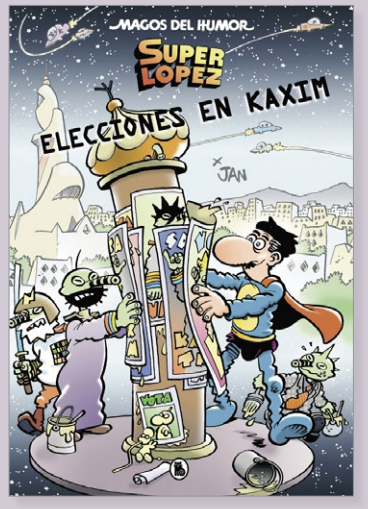
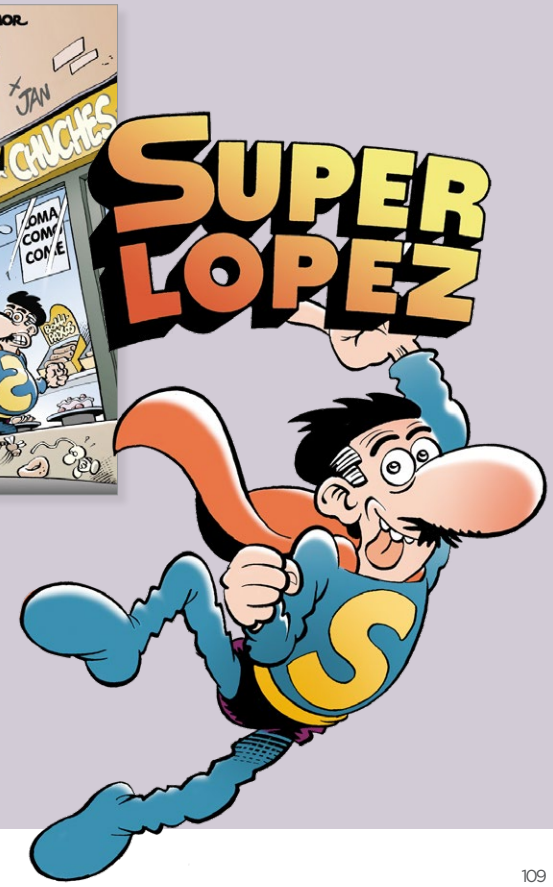
IN GERMANY, SUPER-MEIER (CONDOR VERLAG 1980-1986)







FRANCISCO IBÁÑEZ

SPAIN — Born in Barcelona (1936), Ibáñez is the most internationally renowned Spanish comic artist and writer. He is the creator of several comic book series, such as Rompetechos, 13 rue del Percebe, and Mortadelo y Filemón.

His fruitful career has been recognized with, among many honors, the Grand Prize of the Barcelona International Comic Fair in 1994, and the Gold Medal for Contributions to the Fine Arts in 2001.

MORTADELO Y FILEMON

Mortadelo y Filemón, the most famous characters in the history of Spanish comic books, were created by the brilliant Francisco Ibáñez 60 years ago and have since become a classic enjoyed by children and adults alike.

The absurd and hilarious adventures of these two inept secret agents, Mortadelo – master of disguise – and his bossy partner Filemón, still provoke fits of laughter in children. But Ibáñez's slapstick humor, detailed illustrations and ironic approach at current issues fascinate adults as well.

MORTADELO AND FILEMÓN: CLIMATE CHANGE

Mortadelo and Filemón take on climate change!

In Mortadelo and Filemón's latest adventure, the Super sends these T.I.A. agents on a special mission to fight the effects of climate change, which is causing problems all across the planet. The agents will confront the problem as best they can... which, as we all know by now, isn't saying much. But there's no shortage of laughs in the adventures of Mortadelo and Filemón, even when they're dealing with such an important topic.

MORTADELO AND FILEMÓN: AROUND THE WORLD

To complete their latest mission, Mortadelo and Filemón will go around the world!

The Super summons Mortadelo and Filemón to his office at the T.I.A., because he's going to assign them a new mission! There would be nothing extraordinary about this, if it weren't for the fact that to carry out the mission, they will have to go around the world. In this adventure they will pass through the main cities of the planet and their most iconic monuments, such as the Statue of Liberty in New York, the Colosseum in Rome, the Eiffel Tower in Paris and other cities, that will make this adventure one of Mortadelo and Filemón's most memorable.
